To Request Release of Property Based on Hardship: Upon the filing of a proper claim, a claimant may request release of the seized property during pendency of forfeiture proceedings due to hardship if the claimant is able to meet specific conditions. See 18 U.S.C. Section 983(f). The hardship request must be in writing and Claimant must establish the following: (1) claimant has a possessory interest in the property, (2) claimant has sufficient ties to the community to assure that the property will be available at the time of trial, and (3) the government's continued possession will cause a substantial hardship to the Claimant. A complete list of the hardship provisions can be reviewed at 18 U.S.C. Section 983(f) and 28 C.F.R. Section 8.15. Some assets are not eligible for hardship release.

To File a Petition for Remission or Mitigation: The government may consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardons all or part of the property from the forfeiture. You may file both a claim and a Petition for Remission or Mitigation (Petition). If you file only a petition and no one else files a claim, your petition will be decided by the seizing agency and will not be heard in U.S. District Court. The petition must (1) include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation, (2) include any facts you believe justify the return of the property, and (3) be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. Section 1746. For the regulations pertaining to remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, see 28 C.F.R. Sections 9.1 - 9.9.
